

FROM THE N. Y. MORNING COURIER.

NEXT PRESIDENT.

The Republicans of the United States, the citizens who aided our country as counsellors and legislators in the second war for independence, and the gallant individuals who presented their breasts to the bayonets of the nation's foes, will, no doubt, rejoice at the cheering prospect there is, that the Republican Candidate for the Presidency will be elected by an overwhelming majority. From the best data to be obtained, from information derived from numerous sources and from highly respectable individuals, we venture to say, the result of the next Election will not differ five votes from the following statement.

In order that our readers may understand the whole ground, we recapitulate the votes given at the last Presidential Election, viz.

At the next Election the votes may be estimated thus, viz.

	Jackson,	Adams,	Crawford,	Clay,	Jackson,	Adams,	Doubtful,
Maine.	0	9	0	0	0	9	0
New-Hampshire,	0	8	0	0	0	8	0
Massachusetts,	0	15	0	0	0	15	0
Rhode-Island,	0	4	0	0	0	4	0
Connecticut,	0	8	0	0	0	8	0
Vermont,	0	7	0	0	0	7	0
New-York,	1	26	5	4	0	0	36
New-Jersey,	8	0	0	0	0	0	8
Pennsylvania,	28	0	0	0	28	0	0
Delaware,	0	1	2	0	3	0	0
Maryland,	7	3	1	0	4	0	7
Virginia,	0	0	24	0	24	0	0
North-Carolina,	15	0	0	0	15	0	0
South-Carolina,	11	0	0	0	11	0	0
Georgia,	0	0	9	0	9	0	0
Kentucky,	0	0	0	14	10	0	4
Tennessee,	11	0	0	0	11	0	0
Ohio,	0	0	0	16	0	0	16
Louisiana,	3	2	0	0	5	0	0
Mississippi,	3	0	0	0	3	0	0
Indiana,	5	0	0	0	5	0	0
Illinois,	2	1	0	0	3	0	0
Alabama,	5	0	0	0	5	0	0
Missouri,	0	0	0	3	3	0	0
Total,	99	84	41	37	139	51	71

N. B. Gen. Jackson will have  Eighty certain votes over the Constitutional majority.

New-York will give at least 24, perhaps more, for Gen. Jackson; but we will place the vote thus:

Jackson 18—Adams 18

We place the doubtful vote in Maryland, simply that our opponents may have something in their misfortunes to be pleased with,

2 5

The vote of one district in Kentucky is recorded above as doubtful. The chances are, however, as three to one that this district will go with the rest of the State, 4 0

Votes estimated as above, 139 51

163 74

New Jersey, 8 votes, too doubtful to be estimated—probably for Jackson.

Ohio, 16 votes—Jackson beat Adams 6500 votes in the last election, and came within 500 of beating Clay; still the state is too doubtful to be estimated.

The votes will consequently stand thus:

For Gen. Jackson, - - 163

For Mr. Adams, - 74

New Jersey, and Ohio, doubtful, 24— 98

Leaving a majority in favor of Gen. J of 65

In the last election Mr. Adams received but 4 votes in all the States, (excepting New England) where the Electors were chosen by the PEOPLE, to wit: Maryland 3, and Illinois 1.

The following was the whole number of votes polled for Jackson and Adams, in the U States:

Jackson,	150,000
Adams,	98,183

Majority for Jackson, 51,817

To those few but respectable individuals, who have from some cause or other, or no cause at all, seceded from the Republican party, and abandoned those principles by which that party has ever been governed, we will give in the spirit of good feeling, the following advice: Return to your old quarters, and you will be received by your old friends and companions as fellow laborers and fellow coun-